MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

I have subscribed to Maria Popova's brilliant weekly newsletter The Marginalian for more than a decade. It is a beautifully curated meditation on art, literature, science, and philosophy. Recently, she added a midweek offering she describes as "a sanity oasis". It's a phrase that resonates with me and captures the appeal of literary festivals. For a few days each year, we create a space where reflection is encouraged, curiosity is welcomed, and the deeper parts of ourselves have room to breathe.

Sharing stories has a way of steadying us, especially in times when the world feels loud and relentlessly fast. The 2026 festival brings together writers whose work opens windows into other lives while offering a clearer view of our own. Some sessions grapple with urgent questions; others celebrate creativity and humour. Whether you're seeking insight, inspiration, or simply the pleasure of hearing artists think out loud, I hope you'll find moments that provide you with your own version of a sanity oasis.

Newcastle Writers Festival exists because of a remarkable network of people who care deeply about literature and its impact. My heartfelt thanks to my colleagues, whose numbers increase during the busy festival preparation, board, volunteers, writers, contractors, patrons, sponsors and partners. Your generosity and commitment shape this event and allow it to flourish.

Whether you're returning or joining us for the first time, I'm thrilled to welcome you.

See you at the festival!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Newcastle Writers Festival acknowledges the Awabakal, Worimi and Wonnarua peoples, the traditional owners of the unceded land on which our events are held. We pay our respects to Elders past and present, and recognise the continuing connection to land, water, and community.

FESTIVAL INFORMATION

Event Tickets

For this festival, there are two main ticketing providers. Ticket links are available in the individual event information on the festival website.

Most events are ticketed via Humanitix. events.humanitix.com/newcastle-writers-festival-2026

Events being held in Newcastle City Hall, including the Cummings and Hunter rooms, can be booked via civictheatrenewcastle.com.au/what-s-on/all-shows/newcastle-writers-festival-2026

In 2026, the festival has added a reduced ticket price for those aged under 25 for events booked via Humanitix. Please have ID ready to present to ushers.

For the first time, you are required to book for free events. This will help the festival volunteers manage crowds and also assists us to communicate any program changes.

If you book a free ticket and can no longer attend, please contact ticketing@newcastlewritersfestival.org.au so we can offer the ticket to someone else.

If you require assistance email ticketing@newcastlewritersfestival.org.au

OPENING EVENT

Fri 27 March

09 OPENING NIGHT

An Evening with Kathy Lette

7.30PM-9.00PM

NEWCASTLE CITY HALL

Kathy Lette first achieved succès de scandale as the teenaged co-author of Aussie classic Puberty Blues and has since hidden Julian Assange in her attic, tongue-kissed Prince William, and written 20 more best-selling books.

Prepare for brutal honesty and lots of laughter as the much-loved humorist reflects on writing, resilience, and the highs and lows of being a feminist of a certain age.

Kathy will also speak about her new novel, The Sisterhood, a sharp, joyful rallying cry for female friendship, political awakening and the power of women refusing to fade quietly from view.

This unmissable conversation will be hosted by Yumi Stynes.

The Mushroom Tapes: Conversations about a Triple Murder Trial

7.30PM-8.30PM

CONCERT HALL, NEWCASTLE CITY HALL

Three of Australia's most acclaimed nonfiction writers – Helen Garner, Chloe Hooper and Sarah Krasnostein – discuss the Erin Patterson case and our collective obsession with her strange and terrible crime.

When Patterson stood trial, accused of three counts of murder and one count of attempted murder, the court case gripped the nation and fascinated people all over the world.

Together, the writers joined the daily media scrum at the Latrobe Valley Law Courts and spent long days immersed in the case's sinister and complex themes: love, hate, jealousy, revenge, marriage, money, mycology and murder.

The Mushroom Tapes is a true-crime book like no other—an unputdownable record of the writers' private conversations about their impressions from inside the courtroom. Speaking to Michael Williams, the three writers explore the gap between the certainties of the law and the messiness of reality, their own ambivalence about the true crime genre, and all that remains unknowable about Erin Patterson.

SUPPORT US

Newcastle Writers Festival is a celebration of ideas, imagination, and community. Each year, we bring together some of Australia's most compelling writers to share stories that inspire, challenge, and connect us. But we can't do it alone.

Whether you're a passionate reader, a local business, or a philanthropic supporter, there are many ways to help us grow. To find out more scan the QR code.
